Do you feel passionate about making connections with children? Do you feel passionate about building positive relationships with young people? Are you looking for the opportunity to make a difference? Here at Brize Norton Primary School we have an exciting opportunity for a Teaching Partner to become a part of our team. This passionate individual will provide support for pupils, the teacher and the school in order to raise standards of achievement, encourage pupils to become independent learners, provide support for their welfare and to support the inclusion of pupils in all aspects of school life. The role will include working with whole classes, small groups and 1:1 intervention.

We are a village school comprising of one reception class of 20 children and four mixed year group classes. We have strong links with our local community and our families are supportive of the school. This is a very exciting time to be joining our school and we would love to welcome you for a visit so you can see and feel the family ethos we are so proud of here.

We are looking for someone who:

- Is passionate about forming positive relationships with children, staff and parents
- Can support teachers to develop and implement effective positive behaviour management approaches within their inclusive classrooms
- Has knowledge and understanding of SEN
- Has high expectations of themselves and the children
- Can work effectively with other adults
